Farmers Give Chase to a Brace of Thieves

Being Discovered Robbing a House They Leap From Windows

There was a very exciting time in the southwestern part of this county, near the Anglican county line, yesterday afternoon a posse of farmers being in pursuit of two thieves who were captured early last evening and lodged behind the bars.
Yesterday afternoon, during the absence of the family of Wm. Bowsher, two thieves entered the house and began searching the premises and took everything of any value that they could lay their hands on.
While they were at work Mr. Bowsher returned and had entered the house before his presence was detected by the robbers.
The latter were up stairs and Bowsher heard them. He started up to make an investigation, not knowing there were burglars in the house.

BURGARS IN THE HOUSE

When the robbers heard him coming and found all other means of escape shut off they rushed a window and leaped to the ground below, landing without being injured and left a heavy rest on Bowsher gave the alarm at once not waiting to see what had been stolen, and a number of his neighbors started after the fleeing thieves who proved to be very fleet footed and were getting away, when horses were brought into use, and the fellows overtaken near Elletts. Bowsher, about three miles from Elletts.

The robbers were well dressed young fellows, and several wiles and some jewelry belonging to the Bowshers were found on their person. The robbery having occurred in Anglican county they were taken to Wapakoneta and placed in jail.

Dan Bayliff at Marion a few months ago and Vene Seibert of St. Marys.
The men will fight at eight o'clock and with two minute gloves. They are both in good condition, and it is thought the fight will be for blood from the first of time in one of the other receives the knock out blow. The amount for which they will fight is not known, but it is supposed that the gate receipts will be the only money to fight for.
Seibert is pretty well known about St.
Marys, and has had several hard fights at one time fought Ben Watson of this city. Just where the mail will come off will not be made public but it will take place near this city.

Obituary

Luzie Rebecca Gries, wife of Obed D.
Gries, and eldest daughter of the late Dr.
J. J. and Addie Anderson of Lima, died at her home near Kington, at 12:15 p.m., on Saturday last, of cancer.

The best medical skill of the country could offer no hope for her recovery and she lay her long suffering like a true heroine and welcomed death.

She lived an exemplary Christian life.
She was a fine and companionable wife and a noble, loving mother. She was thirty-eight years of age and had been married eighteen years. Her husband and two children, Ora B., aged sixteen, and Ewen, aged five years, survive her.

The funeral services, conducted by Rev.
Dwight R. Cook, were held at the M. E. church, Elletts, on Tuesday 1st, and were largely attended, many from a distance being her brother, Irvine J. Anderson, of Purcell, I. T., and sisters, Mrs.
C. J. Lepley, of Wilcox, Neb., and Mrs.
Vena Rice of Steele City, Neb., and many friends from Lima, Ellettsville, Wapakoneta, Hanna, Spencer, and Delphos.

The interment was in Greenlawn or Elletts cemetery.

ROUND ABOUT.

A newspaper recently contained the fol- lowing advertisement:

For Sale—A fresh cow, cheap for cash.
Gives a bucket of milk with or without calf. Apply to, etc.

Another sensation is pending in police courts. When it is exposed there will be such a rattling among the old dry bones as has not been heard since the force was created.

Business continues to brighten all along the line. Countless merchants are quick the resumption of operations by the factors and will be placing their advertising for the fall trade. It is a well established axiom that "Judicious advertising is the secret of success" and those who wish to reach the people of this county should advertise in THE TIMES-DEMOCRAT.

More broken stone is being scattered over the streets by the alleged "St. Louis" monsters. As soon as a street becomes possible he dumps more stone over it and runs it again.

The Supreme Lodge, of the I. O. O. F., of P. M. will meet in Washington, D. C., August next. Ten prizes are offered to divisions for efficiency in drill, the first being $100, second $100, third, $100, fourth $50, fifth $50, sixth $50, seventh $50, eighth $50, ninth $50, tenth $50. For the best division commander a jewel valued at $100 will be given and for the division the longest distance in the short est route to reach Washington, a prize of $100 for the best drill drill, $500 mounted divisions first prize $500 and so on.

A good story is told on J. Lee Heustand, who was married the other night. Lee Wilcox tied the knot at the conclusion of the ceremony was in haste to catch a train for Delaware, to attend conference. Mr. Heustand followed the reverend, a fine man to the door and slipped a coin into his hand saying:

"Here a five dollar, to piece for your services."

Rev. Wilcox dropped the money into his pocket and started home. In doing so, he dropped it preparatory to leaving his pocket, he took the money out of his pocket and to his surprise found what he supposed to be a $50 bill coin was there, more it was a nickel. In his hurry Rev. Wilcox forgot his money and as one of the guests of the wedding took to him, as soon as it was found he had neglected to take it along.

The young gentleman received from the minister, Wilcox found the nickel, he found himself in a good laugh over the mistake. Mr. Heustand was greatly broken when he found the nickel and stated the gold coin intended for the man who, who him, happy in his pocket, and up with some change. As he was too late to rectify the error he left word that the matter would be fixed up immediately upon his return from Chicago, where he is visiting.
His homecoming is well to far. In the darkness the happy groom had driven a nickel from his pocket and was in a hurry to do so, for the difference, which he would have paid. He and his friends meant to notice the party, but like all good things it could not be.
